In Memoriam

Entered into her rest on the 25th of February 1912 Mrs. Genieve Tribble. She was the daughter of Capt. Wm. Brown of Lowell Ky. In her young womanhood she became the wife of John L. Tribble. To them were born eight children all of whom, with a devoted husband survive, to mourn the untimely death of a devoted wife and mother. Beloved by her family and friends and held in high esteem by her neighbors and acquaintances. She was of modest unobtrusive piety, and by her beautiful walk and kind and gentle ways, she manifested the lovely spirit that dwelt within. And we are constrained to believe that this quiet lovely one, will be one of the gems that will shine in the Saviour's crown when he comes to make up his jewels.

The testimony of one who knew and loved her.

A. R. D.

For the Uncertain Little Diner.
Thin, white oiled paper spread under the child's plate at the table and extending a little way beyond will protect the tablecloth. This will not be noticeable, especially if it is bought in sheeting and the pieces are cut and laid smoothly on the cloth. When a piece of paper is soiled it may be thrown away or burned and a fresh piece substituted.

Laws in Primitive Times.
Throughout the dark ages of Europe an accused person had to carry a piece of red hot iron for some distance in his hand or to walk nine feet barefooted over ploughshares at white heat. The hand or foot was bound up and inspected three days afterward if the defendant had escaped unhurt he was pronounced innocent. If he had been burned he was declared guilty.

Organ Many Centuries Old.
What is believed to be the oldest organ in existence has been discovered by a German musical director who visited 59 churches in Gotland and in a village called Sundae came upon the remnant of the quaint old instrument. The case alone has survived the fret of seven centuries, and its exterior is adorned with paintings from about the year 1240.

Criticism of Absent Cowardly.
Don't criticize the absent. Make it a point when any man is under discussion to say something nice about him or to keep still. There's always something mean and cowardly in a criticism made upon an absent person. You fall at once in the estimation of right-minded people who hear you. They may think you small, and possibly may set you down as a cad.

Sanders.

Mrs. Victor Sanders died at her home near Marksbury Tuesday morning and her remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery Wednesday morning. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. J. Wesley Sutton who resides near Lancaster on the Danville pike. She had been married but about fourteen months. She is survived by her husband and a two weeks old babe.

Peace.

Mr. J. S. Peace has received information of the death of his mother which occurred in Mounds Okla. on the 25th day of last January. Her remains were brought back to her home at Marshall Mo. for interment. Mrs. Peace was seventy years of age at the time of her death, and for 50 years of her life she had been a consistent member of the Baptist church. She is survived by eight children. She was born in Bell county Ky., but removed to Lincoln where she resided for about thirteen years, but a few years since she moved to Missouri, making her home at Marshall. She had gone to Mounds Okla. to spend the winter with her son, Mr. E. A. Peace, and it was at his home that the death summons reached her. Mrs. Peace has many friends in Garrard, Lincoln and Bell counties who will grieve to learn of her death.

W. H. Ward.

William H. Ward died at his home in this city at 11:30 o'clock on last Friday night. On the night of Feb. 13th Mr. Ward became engaged in a difficulty with Moses Cottrell in which he received a severe knife wound. The wound was at first, while known to be severe, not deemed necessarily fatal; however, septicemia developed, which resulted in his death. After funeral services at the grave on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Dr. E. H. Pearce and under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen, of which he was a member, his remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery.

Will Ward was born and reared in Garrard county, he was thirty two years of age and was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ward. Some years ago he was married to Miss Hatie Arnold daughter of the late George T. Arnold. For many years he has conducted a grocery in Lancaster. He was a whole souled generous hearted young man. Many friends will deeply sympathize with the stricken family because of his death. His wife, parents and several brothers and sisters survive him.

Tribble.

Mrs. Genieve Tribble, wife of Mr. John L. Tribble, died at the family home, four and one half mile from Lancaster on the Richmond pike, last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Tribble had been a long and patient sufferer from a complication of diseases, and the end was met with that christian fortitude which has marked her long illness. After funeral services by Rev. C. C. Brown at the home her remains were taken to Richmond Tuesday morning for interment.

Mrs. Tribble 33 years of age and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Lowell, and was a noble christian woman, one who will be sadly missed, not only from her home circle but from the community in which she dwelt and where she was held in the highest esteem, which was evinced by the number of people who accompanied her remains to Richmond, scarcely a family in the entire surrounding neighborhood but sent one or more members to show their respect for this noble woman.

Besides the sorrowing husband, Mrs. Tribble leaves eight children, ranging in ages from two to eighteen years of age, to mourn her loss, and to those the heartfelt sympathy of the community and of all who knew the departed wife and mother is extended.

Burnside.

After a long and lingering illness of tuberculosis, death came to the relief of Louis L. Burnside at the home of his father, Judge R. A. Burnside in this city at noon Tuesday.

Stricken in the bloom of his young manhood, just when life seemed brightest for him, he exerted every effort to rid himself of the dread disease, but change of climate and all medical treatment failed to afford him relief, and for over a year he has with great patience and fortitude been awaiting the final summons.

Louis Landram Burnside was 28 years of age and was one of the most promising young men in Lancaster, by his gentlemanly demeanor and unflinching politeness he had rendered himself popular with all classes; by strict attention to business and a pleasant observance of the interests of those with whom he was connected in a business way, he had given evidence of those attributes which go to the making of a successful business man, but he who doeth all things well decreed that his earthly career should be of short duration, and the early manhood which gave such splendid promise was not allowed to reach maturity.

Besides his father he is survived by four sisters, Mrs. W. H. Lackey, of McCreary, Mrs. Brent Metcalfe of Howard O., Misses Bertha and Bettie Walker Burnside of this place, and three brothers, Mr. Richard Burnside Jr. of Kansas and Messrs Joe and Terry Burnside of Lancaster.

On Wednesday afternoon after funeral services at the family home conducted by Rev. C. C. Brown, followed by a long line of sorrowing friends and relatives, all that was mortal of the lamented young man was taken to the Lancaster cemetery and placed beside those loved ones who have preceded him to the Great Beyond.

Card Of Thanks.

We take this means of expressing our gratitude to the people of the town and county for their great liberality and kindness to us. In the fire which destroyed our dwelling last week we lost our all, but the kind hearted people of the community came nobly to our rescue. Joseph and Napoleon Hines.

To all those kind friends who rendered us such tender sympathy and assistance in our recent great bereavement we desire to extend our heartfelt thanks and to give them our assurance of our deep appreciation. Because of the fact that it is impossible for us to personally see and tender our thanks we take this method of expressing them.

John Tribble and Children.

Card Of Thanks.

Because of the fact that we are unable to see them all and express our deep appreciation, we take this means of extending our most sincere gratitude to our many friends who so kindly aided and assisted us in the recent illness of our dear son and husband, and who by so many kindly words and deeds expressed their kindly sympathy after all was over, and we assure them that it shall never be forgotten. Mr. & Mrs. Milton Ward Mrs. W. H. Ward.
